CARE IN THE COURTS.

Police Justices Roused by the Expose of Pauper Frauds.Rigid Investigations Now of Vagrants' Previous Whereabouts.Fruit of "Evening World" Disclosures of Pauper-Smuggling.

A good result has already followed THE EVENING WORLD's exposure of the wholesale pauper-smuggling traffic, of which New York City has been made the victim, in the increased vigilance of the local officials and magistrates, particularly the police justices, in guarding against a continuance of the impositions.

As a rule, paupers shipped to this city and turned loose in the streets had their way speedily into the police courts. They want to be committed to the workhouse, the charity hospital or some other institution which affords food and shelter, and are shrewd enough to stick to the story that they are residents of the city.

Police justices have scores of such applications daily. Formerly the justices have usually been disposed to leniency, and inquiries in regard to the previous record of the applicants have not been pushed very vigorously.

Since THE EVENING WORLD has opened the eyes of the public to the extent of the pauper shipping trade the magistrates have been less inclined to be lenient, and the evidence is clearly investigated, and in several instances within the last few days imposition has been detected.

An investigation was afforded at the "Tough" yesterday. An old man who gave his name as Philip Miller was picked up in Elizabeth street half-starved and nearly frozen to death. It had been believed he was a New Englander, whose suspicions were immediately aroused by the evident attempts of the prisoner to conceal something in regard to his past.

In a close examination the fact came out that Wilson came originally from Birmingham, and that for ten months he had been in the Albany poorhouse. He had eaten and slept on the floor, and was often ill. Other paupers had been taken from that institution and sent down to New York on the Troy boat and turned adrift.

PRENTICE'S HARD FIGHT.

Although Slashed, He Overpowered
His Two Assassins.

Henry Prentice, night watchman in the Cunard Lodging-House, at 4 Livingston street, was seriously stabbed this morning by a man named Miller, who escaped. Prentice is in the Governor Hospital.

The man who did the stabbing is known to the police as a tough, and bears a hard reputation.

He and his brother were in the habit of sleeping in the Cunard House. About two months ago Prentice put them out because they were drunk and created a disturbance.

Prentice and his partner, James McNeely, were released at 6 o'clock, James McNeely, it is believed, the Electric Light Companies have entered into a combination to beat the city.

His remarks was called out when the United States Company's bid for lighting seventeen lamps at 50 cents a night each was under consideration.

For 351 other lamps the company only asked 40 cents per night each. They demanded the increase on streets where they said there was no commerce.

"I should think," said Mr. Gilroy, "that in consideration of the valuable franchises these companies enjoy they would share the burdens imposed upon the city partly by them."

The fellow, stabbed Prentice in the left breast, near the heart, and also cut him on top of the head. Prentice fought his two assassins, and they had a desperate struggle in the dark.

Watchman Feeney heard Prentice's cries for help and went to his assistance. Prentice took the knife away and the two killers fled, but the two men were captured again.

A crowd gathered around, and the Miller's broke away and escaped into a by-street.

FATHER CORRIGAN'S TRIAL

The Arbitrators in Session This Afternoon at the Cathedral House.

NEWARK, Dec. 15.—The outcome of the session of the arbitrators in the Corrigan trial, beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon, is awaited with much interest. The Court will await their decision in another room of the cathedral house.

The question to be decided is purely one of law, all the facts in the evidence are admitted. The arguments, therefore, will be based on a question of procedure.

Father Corrigan's retention as judge, which seems probable, give the defense a point for objection and appeal to the Arbitrators. Failure of the arbitrators to agree will necessitate delay for the appointment of a third as umpire. Should they agree their decision goes to Bishop Wigger, who will postpone the trial until Monday.

The trial, which was adjourned on their decision, will begin on Monday.

The question to be decided is whether the trial should be adjourned for a week, or whether the trial should be adjourned for a month.

The trial, which was adjourned on their decision, will begin on Monday.

COHEN HELD IN $5,000.

Two Charges of Forgery and One of Larceny.

John Cohen, who says he is thirty-five years old, a speculator by occupation and lives at 509 East Eighth-street, was held in $5,000 bail to-day in the Tombs Police Court for examination on two charges of forgery and one of larceny.

Justice Police John J. Ryan said this morning that Cohen had been picked up at the Tomba's office and was remanded in the Tombs Police Court for examination on two charges of forgery and one of larceny.

I think it is not in the power of the court to commit the犯人 to prison, but I have no objection to it," said Cohen.

The trial, which was adjourned on their decision, will begin on Monday.
